

Talk Your Science!

Presenting makes you shiver?

A defence makes you nervous?

You want to improve your presentation skills?

This workshop is for you!

Thu, 04/04/19, 6-9 pm

Seminar Room 4.10, Klingelbergstrasse 80

Register with Anja Car (SNI student office)

Workshop offered by Talking Science

In your life you have to present your research, defend your work, explain your work at interviews, convince your superiors, get money from funders... delivering your research is key inside and outside of science.

In this workshop you will learn to: communicate well + target precisely!
All of this with a lot of practice!

We call ourselves “Talking Science” and are a group of scientists and entrepreneurs experienced in the world of science communication. Our techniques have been successfully tested in FameLabs and other Science Slams.

Hurry up as slots are strictly limited!
